

A New Course on Differentiation

“AN INTRODUCTION TO DIFFERENTIATION”

Learn the basics of differentiation from author/expert Dr. Carol Ann Tomlinson

NEW!

3 Semester Hours of Graduate Credit

With the videos in this course, you will be transported to a Best Practices Institute in Differentiated Instruction held on the campus of the University of Virginia. As a virtual participant in this conference, you will learn from one of the foremost experts in differentiation, Dr. Carol Ann Tomlinson. In her presentation, Dr. Tomlinson describes the non-negotiable elements of differentiation and gives several examples of this learner-centered approach to education. Also featured are expert teacher educators experienced in the use of differentiated strategies who demonstrate how to apply course concepts in the creation of lessons and learning activities.

IN THIS COURSE, YOU WILL LEARN HOW TO:

- differentiate your instruction in response to your students' needs.
- improve your instruction by establishing a supportive relationship with students.
- differentiate your curriculum to improve student engagement and understanding.
- create lesson plans and units utilizing differentiated instructional strategies.

This course provides an excellent companion to our implementation courses, "Differentiated Instructional Strategies" and "Differentiated Assessment Strategies". These three courses provide both the theory and skills necessary to successfully implement a differentiated approach to instruction.
